

1 are of such significance that they ought to be expressed
2 in the Contitution and the minority contend that this is one
3 of them.

4 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Hostetter?

5 DELEGATE HOSTETTER: Has not this particular amend-6 ment and proposal already been set forth as the policy of 7 the State through court rulings?

8 DELEGATE BOTHE: The policy of the State set forth
9 as you mention I think only occurs as you mention only in one
10 place, in Article C of the Code which is an anti-labor
11 injunction statute passed in 1939.

12 There is a statement of state policy but,
13 of course, it has no effectuation and it is only a right
14 in terms of the Court's being precluded from enjoining
15 labor activity.

16 I would not say that the broad scope has been 17 accepted in any laws or court decisions.

18 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Hostetter.

19 DELEGATE HOSTETTER: Has there been any denial 20 in the state to organize by law? In other words, has 21 a specific law ever been passed in the state denying
